Darmstadt Central Station is connected to the long-distance train network, including intercity and highspeed ICE trains. Regional trains are also available. The RB68 and RB60 connect to Mannheim, Heidelberg and Frankfurt. The RB75 can be used when traveling via Aschaffenburg or Wiesbaden/Mainz. If you take the VIAS-Odenwaldbahn, get off directly at the “TU-Lichtwiese”.

Frankfurt International Airport is located 25 km north of the city and can be reached via the A5 autobahn within 20 minutes. The most convenient way to and from the airport is to use the HEAG-Airliner, a direct shuttle bus from Terminals 1 & 2 to Darmstadt Central Station (Terminal 1: area B, stop no. 14; Terminal 2: directly at the exit). The airliner departs every 30 minutes between 5 a.m. and 11 p.m. Tickets cost around €9. Alternatively, there is a taxi transfer service. The fee is around €45. (“TAM-Flughafentransfer”, Phone: +49 6151 44722)

The TU-Lichtwiese campus can be reached by taking the bus line L departing from Darmstadt Central Station. Exit at the last stop of the line “TU-Lichtwiese/Campus”. In addition, the tram lines 2 and 9 connect the campus to the city center and central station.

Directions Etzoldlab

You can get to Darmstadt via the A5 autobahn (coming from Frankfurt or Heidelberg/Basel) or the A67 (coming from Cologne or Mannheim). Use the exit “Darmstadt-Stadmitte”. In the city, follow the signs to “TU Lichtwiese”. Parking is available on campus. It is possible to get access to the employee parking lot of the chemistry department. Please contact our office in time, that access to this parking lot can be organized. For entrance, please ring the bell at the gate, tell your name and that you are a visitor for Prof. Etzold. For leaving the parking lot, you need to ring at the gate again.

For further information after your arrival, ask at the administration office of Prof. Etzold (D106).
